

Listado de los tornados asesinos de evento de los días 9-10 de Noviembre de 2002 en US

Informes preliminares de convección severa durante el día 10/Nov/02. Algunos de los tornados (68) que se registraron ese día produjeron víctimas mortales (tornados asesinos)

Fuente SPC

(Hail, granizo; Wind, viento; y Tornado, tornado)

Fuentes de estas informaciones:

<http://www.tornadoproject.com/recent/recentts.htm>

http://www.spc.noaa.gov/climo/reports/021110_prt_rpts.html

<http://www.spc.noaa.gov/index.shtml>

November 10, 2002 8:50 PM CST

About one third of the town of Carbon Hill, Walker County, Alabama, was completely destroyed. At least 11 people were killed and 50 were injured. The tornado ripped through the very center of town.

November 10, 2002 8:30 PM CST

An intense tornado cut a swath through the small community of Mossy Grove, Morgan County, Tennessee, 40 miles west of Knoxville. More than half of the two dozen homes were reduced to piles of rubble. At least 7 people were killed, and 28 were injured. Two others died near Petros.

November 10, 2002 8:10 PM CST

A tornado destroyed two mobile home parks, 3 homes and a church north of Manchester, Coffey County, Tennessee. Two people were killed and 19 were injured.

November 10, 2002 7:45 PM CST

The town of Clark, Mercer County, Pennsylvania, was hit by a tornado. Four homes were leveled and an elderly man was killed. Nineteen people were injured.

November 10, 2002 4:25 PM CST

A home collapsed near Republic, Seneca County, Ohio. One person was killed and two were injured.

November 10, 2002 3:15 PM CST

Two people were killed when a trailer was destroyed 3 miles west of Continental, Putnam County, Ohio. This event was probably related to the Van Wert tornado.

November 10, 2002 3:00 PM CST

A possible F4 tornado ripped apart homes and an industrial park in the northwest part of Van Wert, Ohio. Two people were killed and 19 were injured. A theater with 50 people inside was completely destroyed. Timely tornado warnings allowed the management to evacuate the seats and shelter people in bathrooms and hallways. Vehicles landed in the seats, but no one was injured.

November 10, 2002 1:10 AM CST

A night-time tornado touched down 13 miles east of Clarksville, Montgomery County, Tennessee. Two people were killed in the destruction of a mobile home.

November 10, 2002 12:45 AM CST

Shortly after midnight, a tornado dipped into Carroll County, Tennessee, destroying a mobile home between Terry and McGlemoresville. One person was killed and four were injured.

November 9, 2002 11:00 PM CST

In Lowndes County, Mississippi, one man was killed when a tornado threw his trailer 150 feet. The same tornado, or one in the same family, destroyed dozens of buildings at Columbus.

CST Central Standard Time

Aquí puedes ver los informes preliminares recogidos en ese día referente a tormentas severas.

Los desaparecidos se contaban por decenas.

ram@meteored.com